

Mary Gioffre

Program Manager, Italy

Mary holds a Master of Science in Marketing Management from Bocconi University.

After working in companies in Italy and Spain, she embarked on an 8-month solo trip in Australia and South East Asia. Then, she decided to pursue her dream and became an ESL Teacher, working in primary schools in Cambodia and Turkey.

Her experience in Istanbul got her interested in Social Emotional Learning.

Master Practitioner in NLP and Neuro-semantic, Mary works as online life coach.

Mary is an EQ Assessor and EQ Practitioner and she supports the development of social emotional learning programs in schools and communities. Her mission is to turn schools into joyful growth labs for students, teachers and parents.

She is also Network Leader Coordinator for Italy spreading the awareness and practice of emotional intelligence throughout the country.

She loves travelling and reading!
